> They treat me
>Like my only purpose
>Is to figure things out.
>They don't see who I really am.
>
>I hide behind my laptop,
>With my face not showing,
>And with them not knowing,
>How I really feel.
> But...how would they know,
>When I don't tell them?
>How can they know
>That at night,
>Silent tears run down my face?
>
>I am human,
>Same as the rest of them.
>If only the didn't treat me
>Like a genius; nothing more.
>Then, I would be happy.
> But...all of this,
>I won't tell them,
>Because I feel that they would not
>Understand.
>
>But...even though
>I hold the crest of knowledge,
>I guess I don't know that.
>I guess I don't know

>If they would understand.
>Would they understand
>If I told them that I only
>Wanted to be treated like
>Everyone else?
>Not just like a genius
>Who is supposed to figure everything out?
>Would they understand?
>
>But...I guess I won't know
>If I never speak up,
>For even though I hold the crest of knowledge,
>I don't know if they will
>Understand.
> So, I guess I'll just have to tell them.
>But when?
>Tomorrow?
>I guess that would be the best.
>And then, I will know if they really
>Understand.
